(Issued in the Interest of Investors and the General Public)

Subject: Fraudulent Impersonation and Misuse of the Name "IndiaNivesh Shares & Securities Private Limited and IndiaNivesh Group".

It has come to the notice of IndiaNivesh Shares & Securities Private Limited, that certain unknown persons and/or entities are fraudulently impersonating our Company and Group, its officials, and brand identity through fake online and social media platforms with the intent to mislead and defraud investors.

These individuals are operating under the guise of an "18th Co-Investment Programme", using our name and logo on WhatsApp, Telegram, Instagram, Facebook, and through cloned websites and email communications, falsely representing themselves as being associated with our Company and Group. They are inviting the public to invest in unauthorised schemes promising assured or guaranteed returns and are inducing investors to transfer funds to unauthorised bank accounts.

We categorically clarify that IndiaNivesh Shares & Securities Private Limited and IndiaNivesh Group, have no connection, control, or association with these individuals or accounts. These activities are entirely unauthorised, fraudulent, and illegal. Further, a formal complaint has been lodged with the Police authorities for investigation and action against the offenders. The matter has also been reported to the National Stock Exchange of India Limited (NSE), which has advised reference to its circulars on impersonation and unauthorised market practices.

Investor Caution

Investors and members of the public are advised to exercise utmost caution and to:

- Deal only through our official website www.indianivesh.in and official email IDs ending with "@indianivesh.in";
- Not respond to or engage with messages, calls, or investment offers received through WhatsApp, Telegram, or other social media platforms;
- Refrain from transferring funds to personal or third-party accounts; and
